

Regina Virserius, born in Helsingborg, Sweden, graduated from the Ecole nationale supérieure des beaux-arts of Paris in 1997. She was in residency at the Academy Schloss Solitude in Stuttgart, and in 2000 she received the Villa Medici of Rome grant and took part in the exhibition "Tutto Normale". In 2006, she was shortlisted for the Jeu de Paume prize and was awarded the Grand Prix from the Institut de France's Academy of Fine Arts. Her work has been featured in national and international collections and is frequently displayed at the Rencontre d'Arles. In 2010, she was part of the Biennale in Moscow and was made a 'Chevalier de l'ordre des arts et des lettres' by the cultural minister. In 2014 she shows her video artworks from the collection Frac - Ile de la Réunion in a duo show in the USA. In 2015 she exhibits Insomnia, her fifth personal show in her Parisian gallery. Regina recently participated in the exhibition "L'Art et la Machine" at the Musée des Confluences in Lyon and "Weather Report" at Bonn Bundeskunsthalle. Regina lives and works in Paris and is represented by Gallery Eric Dupont in Paris, and Arielle d'Hauterives in Brussels. She also holds public art talks about her recent work and exhibitions.
